Who may benefit?

Everyone will love Spirulina Whole Food Bars. With a low glycemic index, they won't cause blood sugar spikes like most convenient snacks. They provide long lasting energy from real whole foods.

How is it used?

Spirulina Whole Food Bars can be part of a meal or as a snack anytime!

The Nutritional Gold Mine

Spirulina is often called Nature's Miracle Food because of its abundant nutritional profile. It is 70% protein and contains all the essential amino acids, making it a unique vegetarian source of complete protein. Better yet, its protein is 95% digestible compared to meat sources which are estimated to be only 20% digestible. Spirulina is the perfect source of high quality protein that's easy on the body. It also contains enzymes, which naturally assist in the digestion process.

Spirulina is one of the highest natural food sources for beta-carotene, which is essential for a strong immune system. It is also an excellent source of B vitamins. This nutritious food contains vitamin E, a highly bioavailable source of iron, and 14 naturally chelated minerals and trace elements.

SuperFood for Dieters

- Low in fat, calories and cholesterol.
- Satisfies the appetite, allowing people to reduce their overall food consumption.
- When the body receives proper nutrition, it is far less likely to have an overactive appetite which can lead undernourished people to eat large amounts of food.
- Spirulina Whole Food Bars can be a valuable part of any healthy weight loss program. Keep one with you to stave off hunger until your next healthy meal.

The Story of Spirulina

The story of modern day Spirulina begins with Dr. Christopher Hills. He set out to find a solution to world hunger and discovered his answer in Nature’s Miracle Food – Spirulina.

Dr. Hills traveled the world evangelizing the significant health benefits of Spirulina. He researched better ways to grow Spirulina and shared his knowledge freely hoping to improve lives around the world. With research in hand, he set out to introduce his Miracle Food to improve the rapidly deteriorating American diet. In 1996, Christopher Hills and RBC Life Sciences founder, Clinton Howard, joined forces to continue spreading the news of Spirulina worldwide.

How is Spirulina from RBC Life Unique?

Our Organic Spirulina is cultured in controlled ponds in fresh water and is supplied necessary nutrients for healthy growth. Paddlewheels stir the water, ensuring an even exposure of the algae to the sun. The water is kept alkaline to maximize Spirulina growth and to prevent any other species from growing in the ponds.

Spirulina is then moved into the processing plant where it is screened and washed with fresh water. After drying, a sample is taken from each batch for complete quality assurance and safety testing.

You can be assured that RBC Life offers you only safe, high quality Spirulina products.
